Hackit – Norway's best-selling kitchen utensil is about to hit the UK. This cleverly Scandinavian-designed Kitchen Hand Tool is used to quickly and easily break up mincemeat in a frying pan – plus it efficiently chops, mashes, crunches and mixes lots of other foods such as potatoes, vegetables, fruit, berries and biscuits. These will be retailed in Lakeland from September, and meantime are available from Amazon.co.uk and 2tech.co.uk

The folk behind Pomegranate and Hanam's have opened Souq, on South Clerk Street. It's a Middle Eastern Boutique with an Arabic cafe in the basement. They are selling a variety of lights, ceramics, leather goods, shisha etc and in the cafe you can buy some restaurant favourites to take home like baba ganoush and hummus alongside light snacks to eat in.

spoilpig has launched the first Raised Without Antibiotics bacon in the UK. Available in Dry Cured Smoked Back Bacon, Dry Cured Unsmoked Back Bacon and Dry Cured Smoked Streaky Bacon, from June 2017, from £3 at Morrisons, Tesco, Ocado, Costco, Nisa, Budgens, Booths, Spar & Amazon Fresh.
